Arriving by car or bus

Bad Saulgau is on the B 32 from Ravensburg to Sigmaringen.

Siessen Monastery is located about 3 km outside the town of Bad Saulgau in the direction of Ostrach/Überlingen. The east parking lot for cars and buses is well signposted.

Navigation system – Information for (bus-)drivers:

Time and again there are confusions with another place called Siessen. If you enter the following address into your navigation system, you will safely arrive at our place.

Street: Kloster Siessen 13

Postcode: 88348

Place: Bad Saulgau

Access – Parking lot – Restrooms

Please follow in Siessen the signs for the visitor's car lot east. From there you will come through the chestnut tree avenue to the Klostercafé where the visitor's restrooms are also located. The Hummelsaal is located slightly above it (see central information board in the courtyard).

For a closer exit for persons with walking difficulties or wheelchair users, there is the possibility to enter the courtyard. Since the passage of the yard must remain guaranteed for emergency vehicles, there is an urgent request not to stay there longer than necessary.
